

Inspiring
you

Capital for 4th Industrial Revolution 2022

Creating a global platform for investors & corporates

C4IR

Cambridge
UK 2-3 Feb
2022

Business models
Sectors
Drivers Investment
Global Growth
Risk

Executive Briefing &
Masterclass

Agenda

Leader
profiles

Gain world-class insights
at fora

Listen
Learn
Share

You become a Founder Member of C4IR which enables the network to grow and flourish and adds and returns value | there are 3 levels

You sponsor an investor briefing masterclass in one of the world's top innovation and finance cities. This enables the network to begin to grow and add and return value

You become a delegate at an event, which gives you a free year of membership

HOW TO INTERACT WITH

C4IR

Speakers at past 2017 conference

Dr Boris Adryan, Swiss engineering company Zühlke. Boris is expert in IoT, M2M and data analytics. Prior career as academic group leader in Genomics at the University of Cambridge, complemented by entrepreneurial work with startups in the London IoT scene.

Boris will cover technical & monetisation challenges in connectivity for ML and AI.

Mahesh A. Chikodi Business Head/ Regional Director – UK Bosch Engineering & Business Solutions Senior Business Director/Leader, over 16 years experience in Software/IoT/Engineering in both scale-ups & multinationals, highly motivated. LG, Tarang Software, before Bosch. BSc (CompSci); MBA (Warwick).

Mahesh will cover the challenges of automation in smart factories and IOT.

Dr Caroline Hargrove, McLaren (MAT) Caroline joined McLaren F1 team in 1997. For 10 years, she worked on the development of the McLaren simulator programme.

Caroline studied Maths & Mechanical Engineering to PhD at Cambridge University, then she lectured in Engineering there as a Fellow.

Caroline will cover data analytics in 4IR.

Dr Rob Bowyer, McLaren Rob is chief Engineer at McLaren AT. He has patents in Control Systems for Automotive and an engineering PhD from Oxford. He has worked with Red Bull Racing on real-time simulators and at Vestas and at Cambridge Consulting. Rob is a world leader in real-time and predictive control systems.

Rob will cover data analytics in 4IR.

Pilgrim Beart, Founder of Device Pilot Pilgrim is an entrepreneur-engineer with over 20y innovation in high-tech. His firm AlertMe sold to a utility for $100mn in 2015. His new company is a platform that manage connected things. He also co-founded activeRF and antenova. He is a Fellow of the IET.

Pilgrim will discuss locating, monitoring & the management of Things.

Ray Gibbs, CEO, Haydale plc Ray has been involved at Board level with high tech industry for over 20 years, with sales ranging from £500,000 to £500m. His market focus is in graphene, composites, inks/coatings.

Ray will discuss how a range of new materials are enablers for the 4IR.

Ifty Islam MA, Managing Partner, Asian Tiger Capital. Interested in industry 4.0 & tapping economic opportunities in Asia. AT Capital aims to play a part in the region's economic development by improving business models. Former Managing Director & Strategist at Citi & Deutsche Bank, London/NY. PPE from Oxford. Ifty will discuss how to leverage 4IR business models to create value globally across a range of key applications & how we may leapfrog this from emerging to developed countries.

Nick Coutts MA, Imperial College Nick has developed a set of data and services tools that help corporates go to market more effectively & efficiently. At IBM, Nicholas was Director of Channels and Business Partner Management, EMEA, with a revenue of >$3bn and then Vice President, Global Distribution Channel Strategy.

Nick will cover value network flows for the 4IR.

Dr Doug Huggins, QM Analysis Doug has been working in the securities markets in the US and Europe for 25 years with leading roles at Deutsche, ABN Amro and hedge funds. Doug has a Ph.D. in financial economics from Chicago and has focused throughout his career on developing financial and statistical models for the purpose of identifying relative value opportunities in global markets.

C4IR global investor innovator network

Build relationships
Invest Fund

Meet Network
Dine

Who attends

See info, prices &
book
Event with Hotel
Event no Hotel

Quick book
Event with Hotel
Event no Hotel

Become a Sponsor, Founder
Member of C4IR

Be Inspired
Be Enabled

Capital for 4th Industrial Revolution 2022

The global platform for investors & corporates

C4IR

Cambridge,
UK 2-3 Feb
2022

Email